e Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to ton Post No. 53, gave an entertain The Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to Stanton Post No. 55, gave an entertainment last evening, at Bryson Hall, on Spring street, for the benefit of the society. It consisted of a literary and musical programme, followed by refreshments and a social. There were not nearly enough chairs to seat the audience, and this occasioned considerable delay, the rendition of the programme not beginning till nearly 9 o'clock, at which time the room was completely filled, many finding only standing-room. The chairman of the evening was Dr. Brunson, and upon the platform were seated Mmes. Sterling, Fitch and Hazard, officers of the society.

The opening exercise was a piano solo, rendered by Mrs. Small.

Capt. J. L. Skinner was called upon for the opening address. He bade all welcome in the name of the Rellet Corps. He said that life is like a book, and that all are writing, each for himself; that some of the pages are bright with pleasant memories, and other pages are darker ones. He would not refer to the latter tonight, but would open at page 1861, for this was a large book. On this page we read of war; of the call for brave men to go out in their country's cause, of enlistments, of leave-takings, of mustering, and of marching to the war. From 1861 to 1865 we read of all the varied experiences of a soldier's career; of life in the camp, on the field, on picket-duty, in battle, in the hospital, in prison, and of the eccape, with all its hopes and terrors. And where men have had vivid experiences of all there recorded, it is no wonder that they form the Grand Army of the Republic to keep tender the memories of those days. In all these days, at home, in the hospitals, on the field, and when the men came from prison walls, the women did their part, and the organization of the Woman's Rellet Corps for the assistance of destitute soldiers' orphans and wildows was a cause worthy of all praise and substantial assistance at any and all times.

Dr. Brunson said that the audience would now have the pleasure of listening to a relitation by the queen of juvenile elocutionists in Los Angeles, little Lillie Sargeant. In response, Miss Idille, who does not appear to be more than $6$ or $9$ years old, gave a most beautiful and expressive rendering of "New Year's Eve." In response to an encore she recited her experience in the pantry.

Hon. J. J. Gosper made a short address on the subject of the "Woman's Kellef Corps," in the course of which he said that the first "relief corps" was when God created Eve a helpmate to Adam in the Garden of Eden, and she had been such ever since. He then proceeded to define the differences between man and woman, giving to her a very high position in the elevating of the race and assisting all to a better life. He closed with an earnest appeal for assistance to the ladies in their most landable and noble work.

Mrs. Small rendered a piano solo and Miss Nancy Gottschalk gave a recitation.

Miss Nancy Gotischalk gave a recitation.

Gen. Nelson Miles being called, responded with a few well-set remarks, in which he sketched the work of woman on the tented battlefields, in the nospitals and homes during the late war, giving her large credit for her assistance in preserving the nation our fathers founded and enabling us to leave to posterity an undivided country. He spoke of the praiseworthiness of the organization, and bespoke for it liberal aid.

Mrs. Beeson sang a vocal solo and responded to an enthusiastic encore.

Hon. Louis Gottschalk then spoke to the top.c., "Beauty and Booty." He could not see the significance of the phrase in this connection. Years ago the phrase in this connection. Years ago the phrase in this connection. Years ago the work of women in glowing language, and asked a candid consideration of the claims of the society upon the generosity of those present.

ASBURY CHURCH SOCIAL.

A Pleasant Evening in Hast Los Angeles.

The Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church was well filled with the beauty, youth and flowers of East Los Angeles last night. The young ladies were busily engaged all day decorating the church, and they made a success of their labors, for the decorations could hardly be improved on. Early in the evening the crowd began to pour in, and by 8 o'clock the building was comfortably filled. The programme was opened by a solo, "Flower Lovers Bloom." It was sung by Miss Gray, who has a very fair voice. Thomas Foster read a poem entitled "Flowers," in a very acceptable manner. He was followed by a quartette, composed of Miss Gray, Miss Alice Miller and blessrs. Gray and Shaw, with Miss Haymond as organist. They sam "Come Where the Hills Bloom," and were heartily applauded. Miss Minnie Lindsay sang "he Violet" in a very pleasing manner. Miss Robertson read "Transformation." and the performance closed with a trio, "Come Where the Flowers Bloom." The ladies of the congregation served ice cream, cake and coffee in the anteroom, and a general good time was had until a late hour. The social was given for the benefit of the new Sunday-school library and was a success all through.

Her Marriage to Nanki-Poo at Armory

Miss Ella Richards acted the part of bride, and Mr. Burch acted as groom. Among the other participants were: Wirt Ellis, priest; groom's parents, Ed Brown and Miss Ella Goodwin; go-between, Mrs. Laura Carter; bridesmaids, Miss Rose Osborne, Miss Nellie McDonald, Edith Oldreth, Mabel Montagrath, Miss Stevens, Emma Reed and Minnie Lapham; toreh-bearers, Miss Laura Charnock and Miss Hisey; waiters, Miss Ella Goodwin's Band of Hope class. The singing of Miss Florence Longley and Miss Mabel Reese was very line. Particular praise must be given to Miss Goodwin for her untiring efforts in furnishing this entertainment, and for her earnest effort in behalf of the newsboys' night school, for whose benefit the entertainment was given.

A Large Number of Placer Mines In

A suit of interest to mining men was begun in the Superior Court yesterday by John Hall vs. Albert G. Buxton, through plaintiff's attorneys, Howard & Robarts. Plaintiff alleges that on the 23d of December 1889 he was a superior of a published Piantair alleges that on the 23d of December, 1836, he was owner of an undivided one-fourth of the following placer-mining and oil claims in the Palomas Mining District, this county: The "Watson," "Elton," "Georgie," "Jemima," "Oilie," "Booby," "Lizzie," "Smith," and "Elwood," placer claims; that on the same date defendant owned an undivided one-fourth of the following: The "June," "Adaline," "Herbert," "Columbia," "Green," "E. W. C.," "Hanlon," "Nancy," "Dixle," "Albion," "Dame," "Frank," "Wilkins," "Wilson," "Nero," "Virgin," "Pete," "Hill," "Midas" and "Bunker Hill" placer claims, and the "Queen," "Knapp," "Martha" and "Thermal" oil claims; that on the same date defendant owned an undivided one-third of the "Pauline" and "Sophia" placer claims, and also an undivided one-third of the water right to 1000 inches of water from the outlet of Elizabeth Lake.

Plaintiff sets forth, farther, that on the aforesaid date defendant verbally contracted to sell him, Hall, an undivided one-half interest in all defendant's possessions, above enumerated, for $300; that January 6th he paid defendant the $500, and that defendant thereupon gave him a deed of conveyance of one-half of defendant's said interests, pretending that said deed described all the above-mentioned interests, whereas, in fact, it did not, and defendant hen will did not. Plaintiff did not discover until March 9th the defectiveness of the deed. Then he found out that the "Pauline" and "Sophia" placer claims were totally omitted from said deed. He charges that the omission was intentional, and done by defendant with intent to defraud him.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court to order defendant to make and deliver a good and sufficient deed of one-half of defendant's interest in the "Pauline" and "Sophia" placer claims; that until such deed is made and delivered defendant be held to hold such interests in trust for plaintiff; that if defendant to make and deliver said deed to plaintiff. ber, 1886, he was owner of an undivided one-fourth of the following placer-mining

Despite the smallpox scare sought to be maintained here by the jealous brethern outside, but fortunately strangled by the wise and unremitting precautions which strangled the disease, the month of March was one of the most prosperous that Los Angeles city and county-have ever known. The fact is significant that, though a month in which the eastern sojourners largely begin their homeward flight, the real-estate sales were larger than were ever before made in one month in Los Angeles county—which means the largest ever made on the Pacific coast. The transfers recorded in the County Recorder's office during the month aggregated the enormous sum of $5,524,455. Following is a summary, by weeks, of

An Awful Tragedy About which Haugs an Air of Mystery – The Murderer Fearfully Agitated – rong Feeling Against Him.

The San Bernardino Courier of the 31st

The San Bernardino Courier of the 31st gives the following additional matters concerning the awful Farris-Callanan murder:

The name of the man who did the shooting is Edward Callanan, not Colman, nor Calman, of average intelligence. After his surrender 19 the authorities on Tuesday night he was taken by the deputy-sheriff to the bedside of the dying man, who identified him as the man who shot him. Farris answered: "For nothing." Mr. John Brown, Jr., who was present, took the dying man's deposition. In it he stated emphatically that Callanan shot him. The purport of the ante-mortem statement, which, owing to the agony of the wounded man, was short, was simply that Callanan called him out of the house occupied by the woman, known as Miss Ward; that he (Farris) stepped out; that Callanan drew his rifle on him; that he threw up his arm, as a man instinctively will to ward off a blow, and that Callanan fred, the missile striking Farris on the right arm, ranging downward and entering the body as was atterward deposed by Dr. McDonald. His shattered arm prevented the wounded Farris from signing the document, but he dictated the words, which were literally written down by Mr. Brown. Previously Farris had asked Dr. McDonald if there was any hope for him. "Not much," answered the doctor. "Not much," answered the doctor. "Not much," answered the doctor. "Not much," Parris repeated twice, "then I am a dead man!" Previous to his dictated deposition he had sent for Mr. Boutelle and committed to that gontleman the care of his wife and child, whom he expected to meet yesterday at Barstow, before he received his death wound.

The longest was beld in t was not Miss Ward, at all, but Mrs. Doyle, she being a widow. When called on to testify before the jury, yesterday, she gave her name as Susan Ward, and hesitated long, notwithstanding the promptings of a young man behind her, before admitting her marriage. Indeed, she retired with her escort, and was absent for fully a quarter of an hour after the question was asked. On her return to court after further hesitation, and after the official record had been produced, she admitted herself the wife of Callanan. She was in a cruelly embarrassing position, and she seemed to realize the full force of it. In testifying, she was evidently groping in the dark, and probably every man in the room pitied her in the cruelty of her position.

Here are all the elements for a thrilling tragedy; a fatal shooting; a secret marriage; the wife of the homicide going on the stand to testify against her secret husband under her maiden name, while the man killed was a married man, whose family—wife and boy—were to have arrived last night on the Barstow train. Indeed, he was to have gone out yesterday to Barstow to meet his wife and boy from whom he has been so long separated. If this is not a subject for the trage muse, neither was Hamlet.

The counsel for the defense gave little hint of the line of justification he intends to present. The fundamental facts of the case are yet enshrouded in mystery, and plainly known only to the defendant and his wife. He roomed there from his arrival in San Bernardino until a few months ago. He had engaged a room there on Tuesday night. After engaging the room, Mrs. Callanan, swe must call her, says that he sat down and talked to her until about 7 o'clock, when Callanan came in. As to what follows, she was a reluctant witness; naturally so, we suppose. She admitted that Farris and Callanan, spoke to each other and that they commenced quarreling. Farris speaking first. What he said she would not tell. She deposed that on the commencement of the quarrel she left the men in the kitchen and went into the f evidently of the nervous class of murdeters, not of the callous, shical kind. His face was a study as he stood at the door of Mr. McDonaid's vanit, in which the body of the slain man was being examined by the coroner's jury. His expression was one of mingled remorse and daspair. His eye, if in its nervous, h unted rovings, it chanced to encounter another fixed upon him, instantly dropped. He could not encounter another man's glance for a second. At times he waveringly tottered, as if overcome by remorse or despair, or both.

AN IMPORTANT PURCHASE.

The Chronicle of the 31st ult., has the llowing important details of a matter ready noted in our telegraphic dis-already noted in our telegraphic dispatches:

Every now and then a rumor is started that the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad is to be completed and that the terminus is to be in San Francisco. One of the proposed links is in every instance said to be the Pacific Coast Narrow-gauge Railway, and the public have invariably confused that road with the South Pacific Coast Railway, also a narrow gauge. As a natural consequence, the authoritative announcement that the last-named road had been sold by Senator Fair to the Southern Pacific Company led people to believe that the great monopoly had again headed off a dangerous rival, and that the merchants and people of San Francisco were, for an indefinite time, to be left to the tender mercy of that corporation. The persons who have the control of the Atlantic and Pacific Coast Railway, which runs from Port Harford to San Luis Obispo, and from there south to Los Alamos.

The Atlantic and Pacific road has always intended to follow the coast line

San Luis Obispo, and from there south to Los Alamos.

The Atlantic and Pacific road has always intended to follow the coast line as closely as possible and to run through Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. The easiest and most practicable route after leaving Santa Barbara is through what is known as the Gaviota Pass. The right of way through this pass is held by the Pacific Coast Rallway Company, and the purchase of the road furnishes an importantlink in the proposed line. Grading has been going on south of Los Alamos for some time, and a party will soon hegin work in the Gaviota Pass as as to hold it and prevent the Southern Pacific Company from taking possession of this outlet for their extension south from San Luis.

om San Lois.

Early last fall J. W. Hines, á banker San Luis Obispo, went east and put mself in communication with the en who hold the control of the Atnite and Pacific road, and before he turned the sale of the coast road was complished. Nothing was said of the le, and the road was run along in the liet way in which it has been operated a years. It was noticed, however, quiet way in which it has been operated for years. It was noticed, however, that J. M. Fillmore, the superintendent of the road, seemed to have but little to do with the management, and inquiries were instituted which soon developed the fact that the sale had been made. It was then remarked that all the grading and work which had been done during the past year on the road had evidently been for a broad-gauge road. The width of the roadbed and the low grades which had been before remarked were all explained when it was known that the new work was simply a section of another broad-gauge overland line terminating in San Fran-overland line terminating in San Francisco.

Surveying parties have been busy all winter in the mountains north of San Lais Obispo running lines to determine the best route into the valley of the Salinas. The work necessary to give a connection with the present line of the Atlantic and Pacific will not be very heavy between Santa Barbara and Moisve, where the road now terminates. As an earnest of what the new owners of the road intend doing, it is now known that the purchase of a large tract of land at Pismo Beach, four miles south of Port Harford, made a few days age by Mr. Hines, was for the same principals, and that a large hotel will be erected at once. It is the intention of the company to make a seaside resort of this place, to run in opposition to the Del Monte and other resorts of the Southern Pacific Company. The people of San Lais and between that point and San Francisco are delighted at the prospect of having a rival road to bring their products to the market.

Although it is fully se intention of the company to push se road to a speedy completion, it is dd that they have desisted to give the in Jacinto people a chance to make betautial offers to procure the line in me part of the valley. [Passdens Star.]

Col. Markham and family are again at home in Passdena, and we would have them realize that they are most royally welcomed—that welcome that flows in an unrestricted current from neighbor hearts that are warm and true in friendship's way. We met the colonel this morning and had just three-quarters of one minute's talk with him. He looks tired, the result of a long trip after months of labor at the nation's capital. The Pacific coast never sent a more faithful representative to Washington, one that was more desirous of doing earnest work, or succeeded better. The great regret is that his health was not sufficiently good to allow further service. Had he been renominated he would have been returned by a tremendous majority—in fact we doubt if the Democrats could have found a man willing to enter the race against him. The gallant colonel has a pleasant home here in this lovely land of sunshine, fruits and flowers, and Pasadena is proudly happy to extend to him and his family unstinted welcome.

Progressive Pasadena.

[Pasadena Star.]

It will not be many weeks until Pasadena will be the best sidewalked city on the Pacific coast, and the best feature connected therewith is the fact that nearly all the cement walk is being put down without any legal requirements. It is largely a matter of individual enterprise, and our citizens are to be complimented accordingly.

avail. It really seemed to me a last that relief could be found only in death, and after all I had seen my friend suffer, I felt it would prove a happy release.

It was after my friend had suffered nearly sine years that I chanced to hear of a remarkable cure you had effected in the case of a lady similarly afflicted [in Sacramento]. I received all the facts and details from the lady herself, and presented them to Mrs. Goodridge. She had become so utterly disheartened and discouraged, she felt almost distuclined to make any further efforts toward restoration, feeling they would be useless.

I confess to a similar lack of faith on my own part, yet I urged her to try once more. She finally consented to communicate with you. As you know, the effect of your remedies was immediate, and her full recovery was speedily effected, to the astonishment of all who were familiar with the case.

Any one who doubts the facts has only to look at the clearties that mark the days, and the weeks, and the months, and the years of unmitigated goin and suffering to be convinced of the truth.

CORONADO BEACH seems to have ac omplished the hitherto impracticable feat of lifting itself by its boot-straps. Over a million dollars' worth of property has been sold there since Noven ber, when the land was a howling wilderness.

THE Nashville Banner, speaking of Senator Sherman's visit to that city. says: "He is one of the ablest as wel as one of the most distinguished public men in the country. Though an earnes partisan, he is a statesman of nationa fame, whose name is identified with many of the leading and most succ ful policies of the Government."

THE San Francisco Board of Health, having stultified itself at the start by quarantining steamers from San Pedro, now refuses to redeem itself by an in-termittent spark of intellect. What a howl 'Frisco would raise, though, if outside cities were to quarantine against the deadly diphtheria, long and still epidemic in that city of murderous

SENATOR SHERMAN'S speech at Nash-ville emphasized the fact that he pos-sesses the highest qualities of states-manship. It was not an oratorical effort, but a masterly review of the record of a party, and of a history. The more it is studied, the more it will be admired. A New York De organ says "it was an artful speech; but there was no magnetism in it."

The monthly business review, printed in another column this morning, shows that the smallpox scare did not affect us very seriously. The real-estate sales beat all previous records, reaching the enormous total of $5,824,455. This is at the rate of nearly sixty-four million dollars a year. Last year the sales were something over $28,000,000—which was more than double San Francisco's

More emphatically than ever is Los Angeles today a city of homes. The people who have come to this section within the last two or three years are largely home-builders, and they are building for the future—for the genera-tions that are to follow them.

A few years ago a large majority he houses erected within the city w neat but somewhat unpretentions cot-tages. They were largely for rent, for tages. They were largely for rent, for the accommodation of our transient population. But today the condition of things is different. Wealth is here from every section of the country, and it has come here to build such homes as capital builds in older cities. All along our streets we see the evidences of this. All desirable unoccupied lots are being rapidly bought up and new residences are constructed upon them whose architectural beauty and finish add greatly to the attractiveness of add greatly to the attractiveness of Los Angeles.

San Francisco is not a city of homes

San Francisco is not a city of nomes.

It is a city of boarding-houses, and hotel-livers, and patronizers of restaurants. It has been asserted that about half of the well-to-de people of San Francisco board. Such a condition of things is not a desirable feature in the life of any city. It does not tend to progress; it does not tend to stability, nor does society have that same desirable moral tone that it has in a city of homes. The influence of refined and happy homes upon the character of a community is beyond estimate. There is something in the fact of home possession that stimulates men to public-spirited action. It is this individual identification with the fabric of society that makes the citizen eager for its upbuilding and advancement. The com-munity at large is better for every happy and virtuous home that is built in its midst. It is but another factor of its progress.

Los Angeles, then, in addition to all of its other attractions, has this large element of home life to make it desirable as a place of residence. People of culture, of wealth and of family are drawn hither by this charm. And such people are interested in all that tends to the elevation of society. Society in Los Angeles is no longer crude. It possesses all the elements that form the best society of older cities. The evidence of this is seen in our rapidly-multiplying educational facilities; our numerous churches; our increased patronage of art; our musical and scientific advancement, no less than in the elegant homes that adorn our streets.

The stranger is not slow to perceive this. He realizes that in coming to Los Angeles he leaves but comparatively few advantages behind him that he may not obtain here. He is charmed with the climate and the surrouadings of this young metropolitan city, and he is surprised at the progress that it has made in its well-ordered social life, its religious and educational facilities, and, indeed, in all else that lends a charm to society.

The stranger is pleased also with the spirit of enterprise that characterizes this period of our history. Our electric and cable roads; our, well-lighted streets; our rapidly-multiplying business houses; the fine display of our mercantile establishments; our streets thronged with well-dressed citizens; our handsome public buildings; our pleasant parks; our numerous lines of street railways; the many tracts thrown upon the market and finding speedy settlement; our varied industries, and our rapidly rapidly developing resources all tell of a life instinct with energy and promise. It is a life that is not only pleasant to look upon, but equally pleasant to detract from its charms. The fever of our hopes is a contagious one. No one es it who comes fairly in contact with it.

Los Angeles is rapidly be also an educational center for this por tion of the State. This fact will attract a desirable class of immigration. People of wealth who have been deterred hitherto from seeking homes in Southern California because of the larger opportunities offered at the East for the education of their children, will need to no longer hesitate on that ground. We can manufacture theoogians, doctors, scientists and men of letters as well as any section. Educational facilities are as broad here as elsewhere, and the learning taught as wide in its scope. Our climatic wealth we no longer need to speculate upon; it is but one of the many attractions that is luring the home-seekers into our midst, but one of the elements that makes sure its unparelleled future.

The Police Commission

The Police Commiss pleased if the Herald could and would tell the truth about the Harthorn matter. Dr. Hagan never testified, as that paper alleges he did, that he had told Harthorn the smallpox hospital was not fit to go to. The howl which the Herald raised about Harthorn and Grubbs lald raised about Harthorn and Grubbs being cut off from their pay for the time that Harthorn was sick, and before they were suspended, is up the wrong stump. The Commissioners did not cut off their pay for that period as a punishment, but for the simple reason that they did no work in that time to carn their salary. Although some officers who have lost a day or two have been paid for the full month, such a thing has never been heard of here as thing has never been heard of here as that the Police Commissioners should have a man paid for a month's work which he never did. In cases like this, it is customary for the officer to ay for the time he was an it somether an grant it or not as it somether a simply the state of th fit. The Commissioners simply Harthorn and Grubbs to follow the Harthorn and Grubbs to follow the invariable course in the matter. The Herald is equally "off" in its alleged precedents. Officer Jackson's horse broke its leg, and the city did not pay him for it. Officer Bosqui actually expended $128 out of his own pocket in detective work—before the days of a secret service fund—and the city never paid him back but $75 of it. The paid him back but $75 of it. The Commissioners are honestly and inde-pendently trying to do their duty, and are backed by the better class of citizens. They should not be "jumped' maliciously and in ignorance of the facts in the case.

A Sensation in Real Estate.

THE TIMES, yesterday, noted the fact that a large number of real-estate speculators camped all the preceding night in the hallway of the Moore block, Court street, waiting to get into Mr. Slauson's office to buy town lots at Azusa. The rush was unprecedented, even in this country of unprecedented real-estate booms. The front man in line was offered $500 for his place yesterday morning. The sales yesterday amounted to nearly $250,000.

He said that Kissane had not made any restitution to the bank for the money thus obtained, although it appeared that he was a well-to-do lawyer. Jones submitted an offer made by the cashler of the bank, which set forth that the bank had suffered a loss of $20,050 by Kissane's forgery. District Attorney Martin was present and favored dismissing the indictment, considering the length of time elapsed and that Kissane had reformed and was leading an honest life. Everything considered, he was not disposed to call the case for trial at this late day. Recorder Smythe was not so willing to dismiss the matter. He said there was no evidence that Lawyer Hart was acting with Kissane's consent, and intinated that he would require assurance on this point before taking action. A telegram from the principal in the case would not be sufficient. The parties then left the court.

WHO IS THE FORGER?

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The case of William Kissane, which is surrounded with so much mystery, and which was heard to-day in New York before Recorder Smythe, has attracted much attention in California. A prominent gentleman of this city, tonight, who knows Kissane well, and who also were his family, a severe sufferer by Kissane, gave to the Associated Press reporter tonight a full story of Kissane's career, suppressing only the name which he

"It is believed that the statements made through Jesse B. He is unrepentant, and seeks only a removal of his legal disabilities and the penalties for his past crimes. He is still under indictment for forgery in New York city and for

Among his effects, which were found at the time of his arrest, were some notes of $500 denomination on the Chemical Bank of New York. He was brought to New York handcuffed and locked to the waist of an officer. The key to the handcuffs was lodged safely in the pocket of the Chemical Bank teller, who still lives to probably assist in the last chapter of Kissane's criminal career. While in Sing Sing he had offered to make a full confession of the Martha Washington steamboat conspiracy and to confirm the same on the witness stand, so as to assist the insurance companies in resisting the fraudulent suits brought against them for fictitious cargoes. The authorities concluded that his testimony would be available and useful for that purpose, and as he might not voluntarily give testimony if he served his full time, for this reason, he was liberated and thereafter made a full confession of the Martha Washington steamer conspiracy, the burning of the boat and the efforts to secure insurance. The President today signed the commissions of Charles S. Fairchild as Secretary of the Treasury and Isaac H. Maynard as Assistant Secretary. Mr. Fairchild at once entered upon the discharge of his new duties. He was sworn in at 11 o'clock by a notary public employed in the secretary's office, and took possession of the office and the desk formerly occupied by ex-Secretary Manning. The officers and many of the clerks of the department waited upon him early and extended congratulations. He received a promision of flowers and congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the country. The majority of the telegrams were from banks and business men. Judge Maynard will not qualify as Assistant Secretary before Monday, as he desires to dispose of some business now pending in the Second Comptroller's office. In accepting his new office he will suffer a loss of $700 a year in his salary. So he makes the change at the personal solicitation of the President and Secretary Fairchild, with the latter of whom he enjoys the closest personal relations.

The Treasury Department presented an unusual spectacle this afternoon. The appointment of Secretary Fairchild and Assistant Secretary Maynard caused great rejoicing among the employés, and they expressed an universal desire to extend their congratulations in person. Apparently no promotions were ever made in the Treasury Department that met with such general favor among employés. The two officials therefore consented to receive such of the employés as desired to pay their respects after the close of business. Word to that effect was sent through the building, and by 3 o'clock a large crowd had congregated in the corridor opening into the Secretary's office. Mr. Fairchild was visited first and then Mr. Maynard, the crowd passing in a stream from the room of Mr. Fairchild to the corridor and then the to two officials of the corridor and then the tow officials of the corridor and then the tow of Mr. Fairchild to the corridor and then the tow of the employes as desired to pay their resp The President today signed the lons of Charles S. Parnell, on rising to resume the debate on the Orimes Bill, was loudly cheered. He aid that with the production of the Land ill yesterday, Parliament has been put in cossession of the complete plan of the gov-rament in all its makedness of dishonesty. Land Bill revealed the extent of plot and the gravity of the ciracy through which the Con-tives and Liberal Unionists intend try to coerce tenants in Ireland into the syment of impossible rents or compel ism to purchase their landlords' interests exorbitant rates. If the House should them to purchase their landlords' interests at exorbitant rates. If the House should ever give the government the power thus to correct the people, the result would most certainly be a wholesale repudiation, involving an immense loss to the British taxpayers. The government were pressing on coercion with indecent hasts. They refused to carry out the recommendations of the land commission. If the Coercion Bill passed, the last defense of the tenand commission. If the Coercion Bill passed, the last defense of the tenants against wholesale robbery would be removed. In a justly-regulated land purchase is the only hope of settling the land question. If done at a fair price and in the absence of coercion, the Irish tenants would fulfill their obligations to the last penny. He went on to compain of the absence of official information concerning crime in Ireland. The government had given them the opinion of four judges who thought crime seriously increasing. He could quote twelve judges to show the absence of serious crime. As to the alleged failures of juries to convict, the cases had been grossly exaggerated. They were utterly insufficient grounds for destroying the liberties of Ireland. The National League had been called tyrannical, but there was no proof that any pressure had been put on any one to join the league. It was purely a mational body, the outcome of genuine patriotism.

A SHOT FIBED AT THE CZAR.

BERLIN, April 1.—Advices received from St. Petersburg fully confirm the report that another attempt has been made upon the life of the Czar. It is learned that on Tuesday, while the Czar was exercising in the park connected with the Gatschina palace, he was fired upon by an officer of the army. The ball passed close to his person. The officer was immediately seized by attendants and imprisoned.

'CHICAGO, April I.—The appointment as receiver for the Wabash railway lines east of the Mississippi River, to succeed Judge Cooley, was today offered to S. R. Other telegrams were sent to Calloway, but at the adjournment of court no answer had been received.

The railroads replied, accepting the proposition for advertisements which they should order, and intimating that the daily publication of time-tables should not be regarded as advertisements.

The place was in a short time completely destroyed. Loss, $5000; insurance, $2000. Two months ago an attempt was made to burn the hotel, but the fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

CHICAGO POLITICS.

The Socialists Say They Will Carry the City.

And the Democracy Will Help Then and Share the Spoils.

The Harrison Crowd Said to Have Sold Out to the Anarchists.

Chicago, April 1.—[By the Associated Press.] Emissaries from the Socialist head-quarters have had frequent communication with Mayor Harrison today, and now boldly assert that they can show a list of 40,000 pledged voters for the Socialistic ticket. Joseph Gruenholdt, the leading light of the Socialists, and a city employe under Harrison, says: "History is being made very fast just now. You see, Chicago is a European colony. The masses are day laborers, who do not own their business. Three hundred firms employ 150,000 workingmen within ten miles of the City Hall. It is distinctly a capitalistic city. Here the fight is to be firms employ 150,000 workingmen within ten miles of the City Hall. It is distinctly a capitalistic city. Here the fight is to be made between labor and capital. They are now face to face, and the time has now come. Harrison is playing a peculiar part. He was nower elected by the Democrats. The Socialists made him, if he had been honest enough to at least acknowledge it. The tables have changed. The Socialists have their own ticket. The Democrats are asked to get out of the way. The Mayor is in a place to help them. It has been done. The Democrats will now return the compliment by voting the Socialistic ticket. This is the understanding. The present holders of appointive offices will not be disturbed. On Tuesday next all the wheel-horses of the Democracy will vote our ticket, knowing that they will share the benefits. The campaign will cost them nothing, and their old enemies, the Republicans, will go down before the fusion ticket. Talk about the Irish, I tell you that the Coercion Bill is making Irishmen wild Socialists every day. We will carry every Irish ward in Chicago. By next Sunday the people may become desperate for fear of the Socialists. The citizens may rise up in a day, and compel all party lines to be dropped, and demand a union of all citizens to defeat the Socialists. If they become alarned at the commune they may do it. This is a contrast between the American commune and capital."

The Cook County Democratic Club, an organization occupying a middle ground between the silk-stockings and short-hair elements of the party, held a meeting tonight, presided over by Charles Kern, at which it was expected that an anti-Harrison Democrat would be named for Mayor or the Republican nominee, Roche, indorsed. Nothing of either kind was attempted, and the meeting adjourned without transacting any important business.

The Democratic South Town Convention assembled tonight, but failed to put up any candidate for town officers or do anything else. NO CANDIDATE NAMED.

RAILROAD AND OTHER PROGRESS ONTARIO, March 31.-[Correspo ice of THE TIMES.] All doubt as to building of the electric railway up the Mesa tract, under the moun future.

The depot of the Southern Pacific Railway is assuming proportions. The Southern Pacific people were a long time in making a start, but now that they have really taken hold, they are proving themselves to be pushers. At the present rate of progress the building—which is certainly a very creditable one—will be completed in about three weeks.

able one—will be completed in about three weeks.

The new Bank block is improving in appearance every day. It is a beauty.

Mr. Parker is putting up a fine residence on Mountain avenue, well up toward the mountain; and Mr. J. B. Lays is having the plan prepared for a costly residence on Euclid avenue, at Thirteenth street. New buildings are rising about as rapidly as land.

The sanitarium, near the head of Mountain avenue, is to be commenced next month.

Property continues to change hands, and at constantly advancing figures.

The staff of surveyors is still at work on the mesa—San Antonio Heights. Lots are being staked out and streets put in readiness for laying down pressure pipes for the wafer system. Cast-iron pipes have been purchased and will soon be on the ground. It is intended that the water system shall be first-class in every respect, regardless of expense. The purchase of cast-iron piping, at the enormous prices now ruling, sufficiently indicates the intention of the company in this regard.

a tour of inspection would prove very interesting to the observant and thoughtful.

The ladies of Santa Monica are discussing the importance of having a fioral booth at the Floral Festival to begin in Los Angeles on the 12th of April. We trust they will find the movement entirely feasible. It will be a fine advertisement for the little city by the sea. No place produces more beautiful flowers than this locality. It will be merely a question of quantity. However, it is not necessary to have the department large. Let the collection be choice and the arrangements tasteful. This will be sufficient. Persons willing to assist, or who feel an interest in decorating the Santa Monica booth at the Floral Festival, are requested to meet at the Presbyterian Church Thursday, March 31st, at 2:30 p.m., for the purpose of organizing the work.

Mr. Lightfoot, of South Pasadena, was found this morning about 3 o'clock lying in front of the Areadia Hotel, on the ocean side, a riously hurt. It seems that he had felt faint and walked out to get some fresh air, when he became unconscious and fell from the verandah, where he lay for about an hour before discovered. Dr. Robinson, his friend from Los Angeles, was luckily present and attended him. Mr. Lightfoot can give no account of the accident, beyond the fact that he walked out on the porch. He is new in bed at the hotel, but will be out in a few days. There is no evidence of foul play, although he is badly bruised.

If the people residing on Euclid avenue raise a bonus of $15,000, as promised, the company will build the railway up that line. But should there be a failure in this, then the road will go up one of the other avenues. As the material will be on hand in a few days, the company are anxious to get to work; so the route will needs be definitely fixed in a very short time. When this road is well under way San Antonio Heights will boom, indeed. The Los Angeles and San Bernardino Railroad is pushing ahead rapidly. The rails were laid through here a week ago, and the ballasting has been completed. It is presumed the depot, which is to be on the Bedford property; east of Euclid avenue, will be commenced in the near future.

Workmen are now busily engaged in tearing up the floors of the Santa Monica Hotel porches, preparatory to repairing the foundation and leveling the building. Another story is to be built upon the lower middle portion of the building. Another story is to be built upon the lower middle portion of the building. Another story is to be built upon the lower middle portion of the botel, the dining-room lengthened, a new kitchen built, and all the old "rookeries" in the rear torn down. The entire building is to be painted, inside and outside, the rooms re-papered, and, in a word, the whole establishment is to be renovated from bottom to top. Thomas Bennington, Gen. Rollins, Mr. Dudham and James K. Mulkey are the parties interested in the hotel. It will be open for the reception of guests about the last of May.

Dr. A. F. Elliott and Mr. Morrison, the photographer, made a tour into the mountains, the other day, and discovered the remains of two distinct geysers. They are about aix miles north of Santa Monica and three miles from the side, and the remains of two distinct geysers. They are about aix miles north of defined, and stand out from the side of the eaflon. They have the same appearance and formation as the geysers in Yellowstone Park. All the surrounding rocks are conglomerate. No doubt there are many strange things in the adjacent mountains, if the scientist and curlosity-hunter would seek them. Indications of gold have been found in many localities, and the vegetable curiosities are very numerous, consisting mainly of flowers, shrubs and ferms. A tour of inspection would prove very interesting to the observant and thoughtful.

This land is susceptible of a high state of cuttivation; will produce from two to four crops per annum, owing to the variety planted, such as melons, potatoes, tomatoes, peppers, peas, beans, cabbages, etc.; 1600 per acre net profit is but a fair estimate on each crop; this sum was realized per acre the present season from this winter vegetable land; winter tomatoes will yield much more than $100 per acre net, and melons and potatoes will average that amount; we plant tomatoes in August, potatoes in October. The City to Be Thoroughly Cleaned Up, as a Precaution Against Dis-ease—The Matter of Garbage—The

Yesterday afternoon, at 9:30 o'clock, the Board of Health met in the Council Chamber, Mayor Workman in the chair. On calling the board to order the Mayor stated that the matter of disposing of garbage was the thing before the board. Mr. Breed, stated that the ladies who made the

Capt, Blennerhasett stated that at No. 258

San Pedro street the owner is in the habit of dumping manure in the alleyway and in his orchard. The stench in the neighborhood is terrible. The complainant stated that the man is dumping it in by the cartload and is creating sickness. Referred to Health Officer.

that the man is dumping it in by the cartload and is creating sickness. Referred to Health Officer.

"I would like to know what has been done about my suggestion to have the whole city cleaned up," said the Mayor. "II am satisfied that something should be done." The papers were sent for.

Dr. Hagan said he wished to get a house, as hof weather is coming on and the tent does not answer the purpose. He said they had the smallpox under control, but it is necessary that they should not let the matter drop. He wanted to knew whether the city intended to build suitable buildings or not. If not, he wished to have two rooms built somewhere within the city for a proper building, Mr. Frankenfield said be thought they would have room enough on the lot selected for the smallpox hospital for the doctor to have an office on the lot.

Mr. Frankenfield thought $50,000 would put up a suitable building. The Mayor was of the opinion that it was too far out. The Health Officer believed that he could put up a suitable office for $250. The Health Officer stated that he must have a place, for he could not get rooms any place, as people would not let him come in as soon as they found out that he was a health officer. He was perfectly willing to stay in a tent during the hot weather. He said that he was positive that he could wind up all the smallpox cases by June, but as long as there is a single case he had to have a place.

"How are things looking?" asked the Mayor.

Health Officer: "We have seven cases in the hearting and eight cases outside. They "Notify the young man that he will catch the smallpox."

Health Officer Hagan had found a little case at 250 Buena Vista street. She is a little girl, and they were exposed by a Mexican family next door. "It is a bad place to quarantine, and the woman refused to go to the smallpox hospital. She said that the Herald said the city had to pay the officer who was sent out there. If they had no right to make him go, you cannot force me to go. She has absolutely refused to go, and will not let the child go alone. She said she saw the Herald, and that caused her to refuse to go. I am very sorry that the Herald has done this thing. It only published one side, and did not give all the surroundings regarding the Harthorn matter. The Herald has done us a great deal of injury." He related what he had done for Harthorn, and how he had made him as comfortable as possible. "He did not object particularly, but he said we could not make him zo. When I went out to get him, he refused to go. I did not sooid him because he did not go."

"I am sorry you did not use force," said the Mayor.

"I am sorry you did not use force," said the Mayor.

Health Officer: "I sent Dr. Baker and several others to see him and he was treated well. The talk in the Herald was very unkind and injurious. I am very sorry that we did not force him to go." The Health Officer stated that he had just found a man in a saloon near the depot yesterday, drinking and having a good time. He had a mild case of varioloid. The man was sent to the hospital last night.

A committee consisting of the Board of Health was appointed to select a place for the Health Officer, and for each one to act separately and report as soon as possible.

Superintendent of Streets reported that he had cleaned up the dumping grounds, and is digging a trench so that all the filth and stuff will run off.

Mr. Campbell, the man whose child was reported to have the smallpox, at 257 Buena Vista street, said he was very anxious to have his child remain at his house. The child had been vaccinated five times, and it seemed to take every time. "When the family next door had a case in their house they threw their old bedclothes and things out in the back yard, and I think that is the way my child got the disease," said Mr. Campbell. No action was taken.
